

The ITB Team

Angelika Bullan-Sobtzick

Project Manager for 'Recruitment and Development Processes'

Main Focus

- Support in the area of business solutions | Project coordination and organisation | Assessment and development centres | Point of contact for organisational matters, scheduling and ensuring smooth coordination between ITB and clients | Planning and coordination of processes, including the preparation of materials | Optimisation of organisational processes

Qualifications and experience

- Wholesale and Foreign Trade Clerk
Worked as an export Clerk
- Extensive PR expertise
Several years' experience ranging from PR secretary to executive assistant to the head of a PR professional association

Project management in selected client projects

- Industrial companies | Multi-day development centres for high-potential talent, incorporating coaching and training elements
- IT company | Development centre for future leaders
- Medium-sized company | Virtual assessment processes for international executives
- Major bank | Multi-day development centres for specialists and managers
- International automotive supplier | Assessments and development centres involving international executives