

Your consulting team

Laura Lüneborg

Senior Manager

Training and further education

- Psychology (M.Sc.)
- DIN 33430 licensed, trained in systemic coaching and organisational development

Main focus

- Strategic HR consulting | Recruiting, talent management, competence management, change management
- Management diagnostics | Selection and development of specialists and managers, systemic diagnostics
- Training | Training and workshops on various topics, e.g. diagnostics, leadership, innovation, complexity management, etc.
- Team development | Continuous support in agile working contexts
- Coaching | Individual support on career and leadership topics

Selected reference projects

- Major German bank: project management, design and implementation of development centres for international managers at all levels; incl. observation training
- International railway group: Conception and implementation of the reorientation of group-wide talent management
- International railway group: consulting and conception of an IT project for the reorganisation of group-wide competence management
- International non-profit organisation: Project manager of a transformation project on leadership culture and a one-year development programme for managers.

Further experiences

- Professional activity as an internal consultant and agility master for an agile team in a large corporation
- Professional publication: Lüneborg, L., Petruschke, P. & Roth, K.. 2019. assessment centre training for dummies. Wiley-VCH.